As a Sales Assistant, you'll play a crucial role in driving sales and delivering exceptional customer service. The position is part-time, approx. 6 hours per week and can include work during weekdays, evenings & weekends.

Your role will include:

- Deliver a high-quality shopping experience by providing customers with professional and personalized service, assisting them with product information and tailored recommendations to support their purchasing decisions.
- Proactively apply different sales techniques to contribute to the achievement of the store's sales targets.
- Operate the point-of-sale system, handling transactions efficiently and accurately.
- Ensure shelves are well-stocked and the inventory is efficiently maintained, recognizing that an organized and fully replenished store environment supports both customer satisfaction and sales performance.
- Help maintain a clean, organized, and visually appealing store that aligns with our visual merchandising standards and enhances the overall customer experience.
- Collaborate closely with the team and contribute to a positive team dynamic focused on achieving shared goals.

What We're Looking For:

- Excellent customer service and communication skills.

- Sales-driven mindset with a customer-focused approach.
- Team-oriented spirit with the ability to thrive in a collaborative environment.
- Attention to detail to maintain visual merchandising standards.
- Flexibility to work evenings, weekends, and varied hours as needed.
- Previous experience in retail or customer service is preferred.
- Strong command of English, both verbal and written.

What We Offer:

- Opportunity for growth and advancement within the company.
- A supportive and collaborative team environment.
- Ongoing training and development opportunities.
- Competitive hourly wage commensurate with experience.
- Clothing allowance and employee discount on all Amer Sports brands
- Competitive benefits package
